

LuzMarina Tovar is the owner and founder of ArTree, a home-based art studio in the Oakland Hills.

She began her dream of becoming an artist as a young child, and has continued her art career ever since.

LuzMarina graduated from Massachusetts College of Art and Design, in Boston, with a BFA in Metal Arts. She has also studied jewelry and metalsmithing in London, England, in her native Caracas, Venezuela, Colorado Springs, Colorado and Monterey, California.

LuzMarina's international experience gives her a broad perspective and an unique approach to making and creating art.

After completing her studies, LuzMarina went on to designing and manufacturing her own jewelry line, showing her work in art galleries, and teaching art classes and workshops on metals arts and mixed media.

Some of her most recent teaching experience includes, the Museum of Children's Art MOCHA, Otis Elementary School Artist in Residence, and Edna Brewer Middle School Art Program guest teaching artist.

Her latest endeavor is her most recent creation, ArTree Studio, a space to create and explore the beautiful and intricate world of the arts.
